BROADVIEW
MONTANA

foreword

The Annual Staff of 1956 is happy to present this edition of the TREASURE CHEST.

We have packed this chest with stories and pictures of our school life. These will help you recall the experiences, friendships, and good times we have had together.

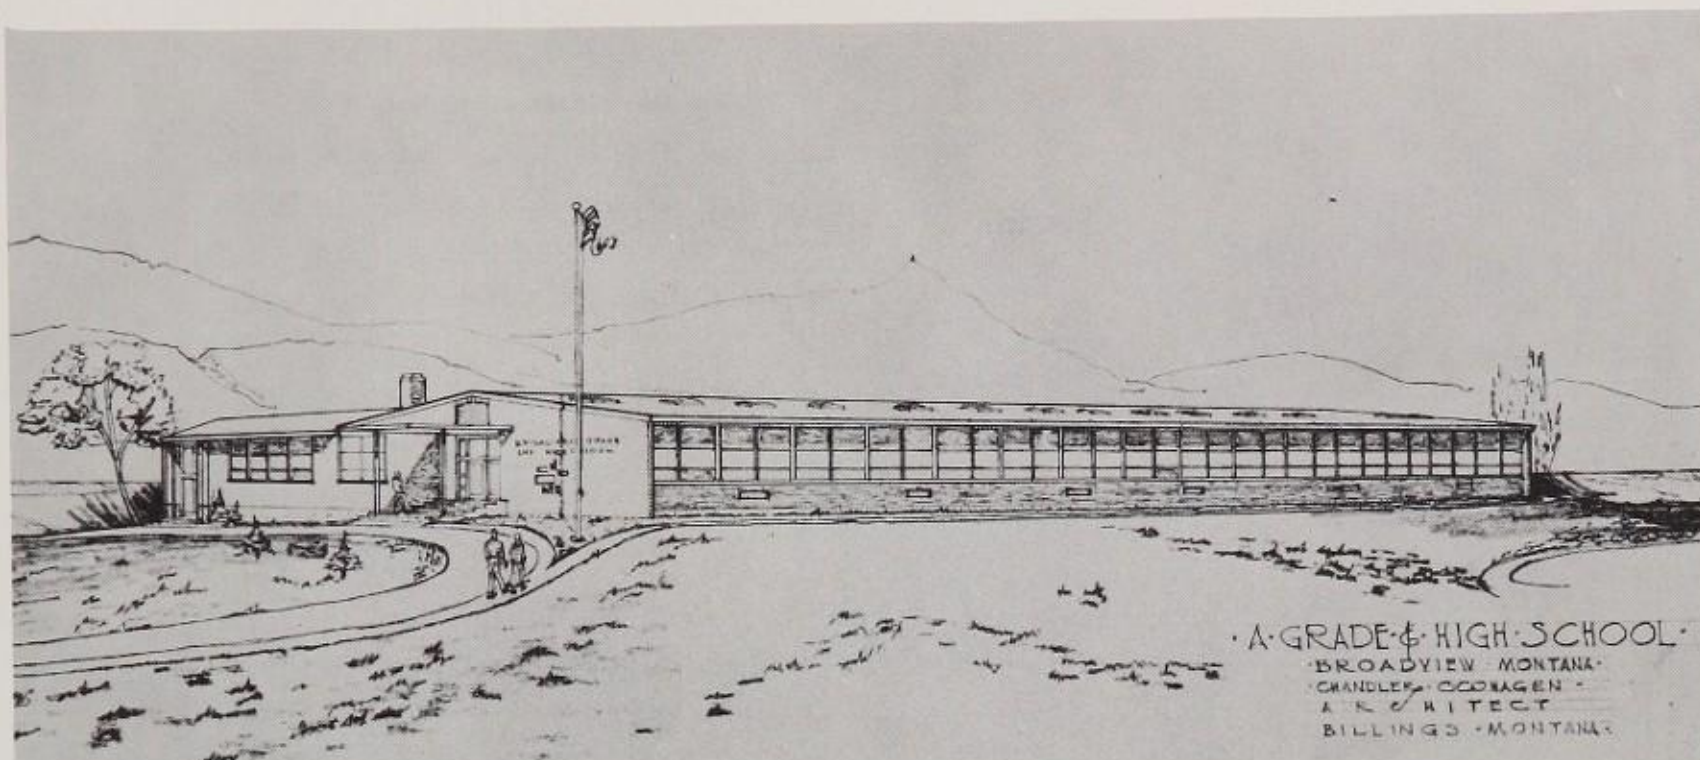

May this book truly be a treasure chest of pleasant memories in the years to come.

We sincerely hope that the alumni section will recall many memorable school days to you, the former graduates of Broadview High. We also hope that the other sections of this book will be long remembered by you as the outstanding features of the school year 1955-56.

May each and every one of you truly enjoy this treasure chest of memories and we wish you much success and happiness to you and your families.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

dedication

This issue of the TREASURE CHEST we, the Annual Staff of 1956, dedicate to the voters and advocates of the new school.

It is because of your interest and desire to better the community and the children, who are eventually to become the leaders of this country, that we are to have this new building.

The present school is forty-six years old. Many students have passed through its halls and the majority of them have become successful in their chosen fields. It is our wish that the new school also will have an outstanding record such as this.

It is with much pride and pleasure that we dedicate our annual to you, the voters of the new school.

school board

The school board is an important organization behind any school. The Broadview school has three members on its board. The district consists of five elementary districts.

Luther Auer, Chairman, has served 25 years on the board in this area.

Mrs. Jansma has served three years as a member of the board.

Ken Hegg is serving his second year.

Charlene Baird, former clerk, served the board for two years. Bonnie Beman is the new clerk.

Chandler C. Cohagen, opening the bids for the new school.

Mr. Nelson, Luther Auer, Jennie
Jansma and Charlene Baird.

class will

We, the Class of 1956, in four individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament. As to such estate as it has pleased the Fates and our own strong hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

To the faculty we leave many more years of struggle with the students of B.H.S. We also leave them the new school building to take care of.

To the Juniors we leave one more year of tyranny, quarrels, tests, essays and fear of being expelled. We also bequeath them our positions on the paper and annual staffs.

To the Sophomores we leave our excellent study habits. We also leave them our patience. Ownership of this is the only thing that will enable them to endure next year's sophomore class.

To the Freshmen, whose greenness has now worn off goes our luck. Do not take this lightly. It made us what we are today.

To the school board we leave a year's supply of aspirins. These should last about six months.

To Mr. Heiser we leave ink spots, spilled correction fluid, broken windows, flying erasers, finger prints and scribbled up walls. We hope we will be remembered for things other than these.

To Mrs. Corbin we leave a noiseless lunchroom due to the fact she won't be seeing our sweet smiling faces.

PERSONAL BEQUESTS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Anita Jansma wills her red Buick, oil wells and friend to Grace Adams. (If you want them.) She leaves to Linda Arter her job as Art Editor on the paper. You can also have the headaches and mess that accompanies it. To Dale she leaves her hair, which she insists isn't red. We're sure he will appreciate it as a souvenir. She leaves her cheer-leading position to Naomi. We're sure you'll have a good time. Her ability to chew gum and not move her mouth to Bob Tew. It takes practice Bob, but it pays off.

Don leaves his ability to leave home when the last bell rings and still get to school on time to Bud. He leaves to Norman his curly hair. This may assist you in your love life, Norman. He leaves Bobby Kallem the editorship of the paper and also his girls. Not that you need them by any means, Bob. To Wayne Ostwald he gives his ability to get along with Donna. By the looks of things you can use it, Wayne.

John leaves his position as basketball center to Charles Heiser, however you'll have to grow, Charlie. His "girl friends," including Gayle, to Montie Auer. You might have a hard time finding them, Montie. Doug receives his excellent ability to dodge work. To Tony he leaves his "ways" of keeping his grades up for basketball.

Kay leaves to Paul, her younger sister, Ann. Be careful of that left hook, Paul, it's wicked. She leaves the job of editor for the annual to Keith, since she personally trained him this year. To Bob Wilken goes the job of guarding Keith while she is at college. Take good care of him, Bob. She leaves her ability to get along with teachers to Dennis Brown. Maybe this will help, Dennis.

senior class prophecy

With Father Time's permission we will turn the hands of time forward to the year 1976 and see what the 1956 graduates are doing.

First we look in on the former Kay Conover who is now Mrs. Keith Nelson. They are now living on their ranch twelve miles east of Broadview with their three children. While Kay washes diapers Keith is busy trying to stop an oil gusher which is flooding his fifty bushel per acre wheat lands.

The former Anita Jansma, is now the wife of a corporal in the Air Force. She and Mr. Heiser are now living in one of the barracks. Since they both are in the Air Force they see very little of each other but are planning to settle down to raising a family and living in Broadview sometime in the near future.

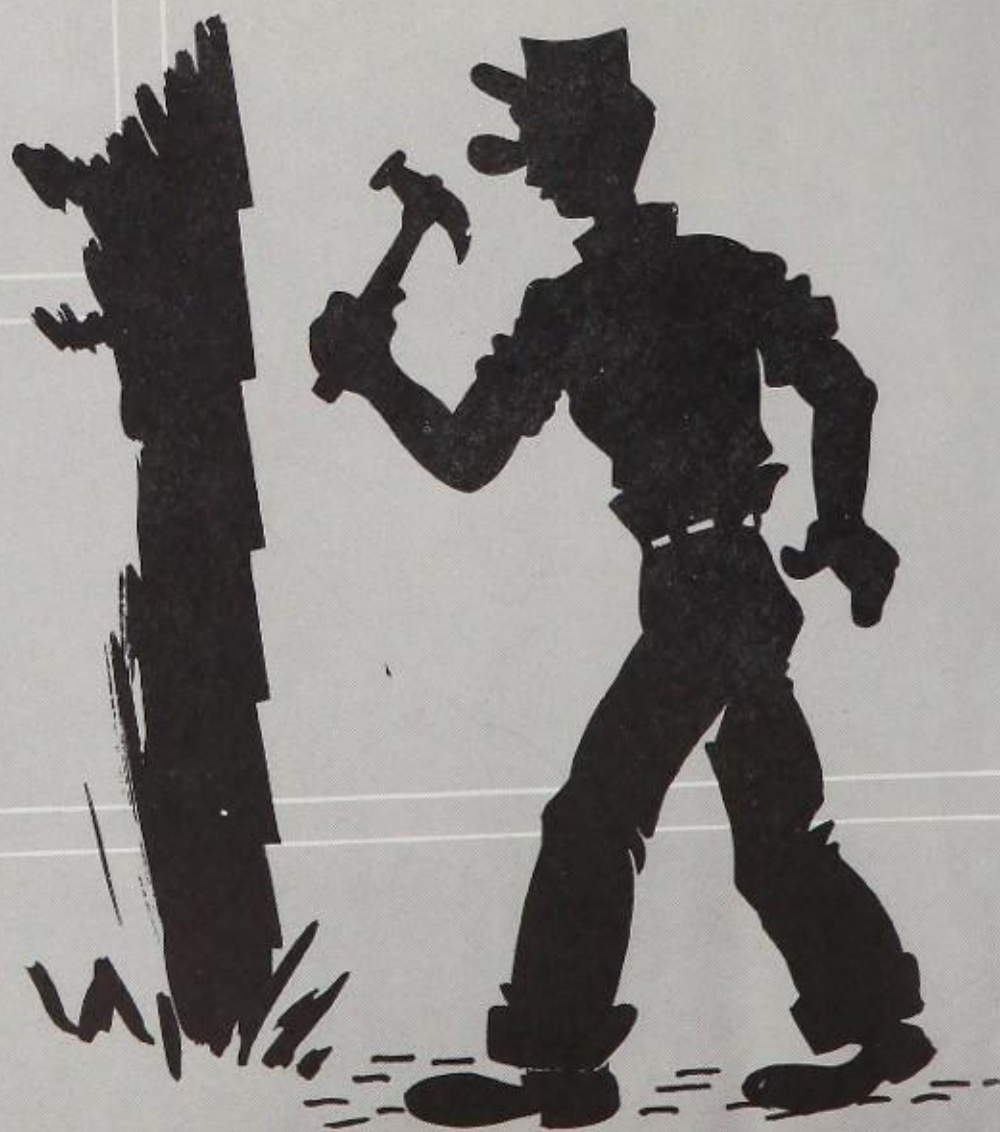

John Wilken met a girl in college and they are now living in Bozeman where John is a partner in her father's business, which is supplying the Nelson ranch with eggs and poultry. He discovered a new process for preserving chicken feathers, but now he wants to know what to do with the feathers! They are raising a basketball team and have a fine start with four boys.

Don Hegg is now the editor of the Seattle Daily News. His wife, the former Karen Hastings, has a column in the paper entitled, "Advice to the Lovelorn." They and their one child are living in a penthouse apartment while the family mansion is being remodeled.

The members of the pep club elected Anita Jansma, Kay Conover, and Gayle Hageman to serve as cheerleaders for the year 1955-56. This was Kay and Anita's fourth year of cheerleading, and is Gayle's first.

The girls chose old gold sweaters with purple letters and purple skirts with white lining for their uniforms.

We are very proud of our cheerleaders this year as they won the cheerleading contest which was held in Roundup at the District 7 tournament. Cheerleaders from all of the towns in the district took part in this event. As a prize the girls each received a pair of saddle oxfords and a plaque which will be given to the school.

Wayne Ostwald, freshman, and Paul Calhoun, sophomore, were guards. Robert Wilken and Robert Kallem, juniors, Montie Auer, sophomore, and Bobby Tew, freshman, served as substitutes. The first semester Tony Degele, junior, played guard and Norman Haworth, sophomore, was a substitute.

The boys had a very successful season this year with six wins and four losses in conference play, and five wins and three losses in non conference play.

In the tournament the Pirates advanced to the championship game by defeating Rapelje and Melstone. They received second place and were challenged by Musselshell and defeated and therefore came home with the third place trophy.
